COUNTY COURT OPEN

Case of Sanderson Vs. Boston & Maine Railroad Begun Before A Struck Jury.

The December term of Caledonia county court opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Z. S. Stanton of Roxbury presiding. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Alfred Poole Grint of the Episcopal church and the proclamation made by Sheriff Worthen. Sheriff Worthen has as assistants for the present, deputies Harvey Kent of McIndoes, C. W. Thurber of Danville and Albert DeRoche of Danville. The most deer were killed in Washington county, 845, or nearly one-sixth of all shot in the state. Windham and Windsor counties followed closely with 793 and 765 respectively. The summary by counties follows:—

Among the attorneys from outside the county present at the opening of court were Emmett McFeeters of Ennsburg, Falls, Walter Cleary and George Young of Newport and H. W. Shurtliff and E. H. Deavitt of Montpelier.

Another interested spectator was Former Assistant Judge P. H. Graves of Kirby who was a member of the senate in 1907 over which Judge Stanton presided as lieutenant governor.

The docket was called and 23 cases were set for trial, 56 continued, 13 discontinued or non-suited and five settled and discontinued.

In the afternoon the grand jurors were called and there were two vacancies which were filled by calling Charles W. Silsby and Herbert Balch of this village. Charles Weeks was appointed foreman, Mabel L. Spencer, stenographer, Charles W. Thurber, the sheriff in charge and Harvey Kent substitute. The jury was charged by Judge Stanton and then retired to begin its duties. States Attorney Norton said he did not know whether or not Attorney General Barber was coming to help him before the grand jury.

The special jury called to hear the case of Percy D. Sanderson vs. Boston and Maine Railroad was then called. Twenty-four men were summoned but only 21 answered to their names. Of these it was found that five had been called to serve as jurors in this county within two years and were excused. Two men were then put in the jury box and only one rejected. The jury as made up is as follows:—

Samuel Mills of Ryegate, C. L. French of Hardwick, Frank T. Taylor of Hardwick, Charles A. Welch of Wheelock, D. N. McLean of Wheelock, H. D. Packer of Newark, George A. Whipple of Lyndon, Nelson A. Park of Ryegate, W. P. Russell of Kirby, H. P. Simpson of Sheffield, Harry Davis of Sheffield and Charles A. Stanford of Hardwick.

As soon as the jury was completed the court took a recess until this morning.

TWO EXTENSION SCHOOLS

Will Be Held At East Hardwick and Danville In December and January.

The agricultural extension schools as now scheduled will be held at East Hardwick during the week of Dec. 27 to 31, and at Danville during the week of Jan. 3 to 7. There is some possibility that the date of the East Hardwick school may be changed. These schools are held under the auspices of the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Vermont, and State Agricultural college. Two men from the State college will work with the county agent at each place. At East Hardwick an instructor from the home economics department will give lectures and demonstrations to the ladies along the lines of home economics and domestic science.
